State bonds were dull and steady. Louisiana consols sold at 64. Tennessee 6s at 75. South Carolina consols ex interest at 106 3/4, and Arkansas 7s, Pine Bluff and New-Orleans Railroad, at 143 1/2. Of city day. Prices for the speculative kinds of consols made some trifling gains in sympathy with the stock market. The Erie second consols rose to 104½, Missouri, Kansas and Texas seconds to 86½. Boston, Hartford and Erie firsts rose 1 per cent to 82, and Chesapeake and Ohio currency debts sold at 82½. The Canada Southern firsts brought 101¼ ex interest, and the Erie and Iron Mountain new 5s were moderately active at 93½. Metropolitan Elevated firsts sold at 101 to 100½ ex interest, and the seconds at 89½ to 88. St. Paul and Omaha consols were strong up to 105. Denver and Rio Grande firsts and consols each were ¼ lower at 104½.

The business of the Sub-Treasury for the week ending to-night includes the receipt of $7,014,380 and the payment of $5,925,314. The Treasury has gained to the general balance of $1,089,060, and leaves it at $1,089,060.

The particular changes of the week are as follows: The gold reserves include $1,200,000 gold received from San Francisco; the currency loss of $438,639. But money market is a general gain of only $489,080.

Day-to-day worked smoothly at 4 per cent as the commercial banks were offering our loans.

Noteworthy change in the domestic exchange—New York is the decline to 11 50 discount at Chicago.

To-day received $220,000 National bank redemption. The customs receipts were $700,000, and the excise receipts were $760,000.
